
RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) acknowledges skills acquired through formal and informal learning and work experience. The process of RPL assessment assesses evidence of the candidate's competency and previous experiences to determine whether the candidate meets the required standards and can be awarded a formal qualification or credits towards a qualification.

Here comes in ASDAM to support its eligible candidates with the RPL service in order to transform the candidate's knowledge and experience into an accredited UK qualification.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

1. Candidate's updated and detailed CV in English with photo signed and dated by the candidate.
2. Candidate's valid Passport copy
3. Previous work experience reference/letters issued signed and stamped from the current and previous employers.
4. Certificates of short courses of training, workshops and/or seminars, if available.

RPL CERTIFYING BODY

The RPL qualification or certificate is issued by a recognized and accredited certifying body by the UK Ofqual, which is a UK government body under the UK parliament.

QUALIFICATION NAME

The issued RPL qualification or certificate is a vocational qualification and is called HND of level 5, which is actually Precedes a bachelor's degree (level 6).

QUALIFICATION BENEFITS

1. The UK HND level 5 in vocational education provides the candidate with the opportunity to top up and enroll for one additional year towards his/her Bachelor degree.
2. The UK HND level 5 is recognized by all the European countries and specifically Germany
3. Allows the candidate to apply for Qualification Equivalency (QE) in Germany or any other European country as a prerequisite for a job search in Germany.

RPL PROCEDURE

1. Candidate submits the required documents to the local agent in the country of residence or to directly to ASDAM, if local agent is not available.
2. Local Agent delivers the required documents to ASDAM
3. Local Agent pays, in behalf of the candidate, half of the allocated fees and cost of the RPL qualification.
4. ASDAM processes the RPL Assessment with the UK Certifying body.
5. The Candidate's documents assessment duration ranges between one and two weeks time.
6. The UK Certifying body attests and delivers the qualification to ASDAM
7. The Local agent pays, in behalf of the candidates, the second half of the allocated fees and cost of the RPL qualification.
8. ASDAM delivers the RPL qualification to the local agent or directly to the candidate, if the local agent is not available.